

City of Kobe: KOBE Biennale 2015
Call for Applications for International Competitions

KOBE Biennale is a comprehensive art festival which has been held every two years since 2007, where diverse foreign cultures and art cultures come together to interact in the Port City, Kobe. Competitions in various categories and a wide variety of project exhibitions are held, making the best use of the beautiful locations with the historical background of the port.

Upon the opening of KOBE Biennale 2015 we are calling for a broad range of artworks for the following four International Competitions:

- The “Art in a Container International Competition”, using a shipping container as an exhibition space <http://kobe-biennale.jp/en/compe/container/index.html>
- The “SHITSURAI ART International Competition”, incorporating the Port of Kobe into artwork <http://kobe-biennale.jp/en/compe/shitsu/index.html>
- The “Creative Toys International Competition”, using natural materials <http://kobe-biennale.jp/en/compe/toy/index.html>
- The “Comic Illustration International Competition”, which is drawing attention from at home and abroad <http://kobe-biennale.jp/en/compe/comic/index.html>
